The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, September 26. 1706.

Hague, September 16.

THE States having receiv'd the Biſhop of Paderborn's Letter, [which was inſerted in the Courant of the 7th of September, and was the laſt Piece we gave on that ſubject] notifying to them his Election to the Biſhoprick of Munſter, have written an Anſwer in which they congratulate him upon it; have taken a firm Reſolution effectually to maintain his Right; and doubt not to be ſeconded by ſeveral Princes and Eccleſiaſtical Eſtates of Germany: They endeavour likewiſe to engage the Queen of England for the Biſhop of Paderborn. Meaſures are alſo taken to induce the Pope to approve the ſaid Election. His Holineſs has not been written to directly, becauſe their High Mightineſſes have no Correſpondence with the Court of Rome: But Signior Buſſi, his Incumbent at Cologne has been given to underſtand, that the Intereſt of the Catholicks in this Country is of more Importance to his Holineſs than the Affair of the Election at Munſter; and that if he will confirm the Election of the Biſhop of Paderborn, to the Satisfaction of this State, any reaſonable Perſon that the Court of Rome ſhall think fit to nominate, ſhall be admitted as his Vicar in this Country. The Poſt from Germany that came in laſt Night, brought Advice, that the Chapter of Trier diſapprove very much the Proceedings of the Imperial Court in what has been tranſacted at Munſter. Their Elector being old and decrepit, they may ſoon have Occaſion to come to an Election themſelves, and therefore have reſolv'd to take proper Meaſures in Time for ſecuring their Liberty of electing. 'Tis adviſ'd likewiſe, that they have written to other Chapters, to invite them to concert with them the Means for preſerving their Liberties. Thoſe who wiſh well to the common Cauſe, would be glad to ſee this unlucky Affair of Munſter quietly made up. And 'tis reported the States will, to that good End, try to perſwade the Biſhop of Oſnabrug, to deſire the Emperor himſelf to deſiſt from endeavouring to get him choſen; upon a Promiſe that their High Mightineſſes will uſe their beſt Offices to procure the Coadjutorſhip of Cologne, or ſome other Biſhoprick for that Biſhop.

Hague, Sept. 14. The States being inform'd that the Dean and Canons of Munſter that oppoſe the Biſhop of Paderborn their new Biſhop elect, have deputed a Commiſſary to review the Troops of that Biſhoprick, and under that Pretence to forbid them to renew their Oath to the States, or to ſwear Allegiance to the Biſhop of Paderborn; have ſent Order to their Field Marſhal Mr d'Auverquerque, to ſieze the ſaid Commiſſary if he ſhould come to the Army and deſire to aſſume ſuch an Authority. They have likewiſe taken proper Meaſures, agreeable to a Reſolution which they made the 6th Inſtant, to keep the ſaid Troops of Munſter within the Bounds of their Duty to their Biſhop elect; and 'tis ſaid the Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Munſterians that is garriſon'd in this Town, who is ſet out from hence for Munſter, is gone thither to acknowledge the ſaid Biſhop Elect on the Part of his Regiment; and that the commanding Officers of the other Regiments of Munſter that are in the Service of the States, will be put upon doing the like. The King of Pruſſia's Miniſter has notified to the States, that the King his Maſter has ſent Order to his Envoy at Ratisbon, to make Complaints to the Diet touching the Excluſion formerly mention'd to have been given to the Chapter of Munſter by the Imperial Miniſters againſt the Biſhop of Paderborn; as a Reſtraint put upon the Chapter's Liberty, and conſequently an Infraction of the Treaty of Weſtphalia.

Hague, Sept. 28. The States perſiſt ſtedfaſtly in their Reſolution to ſupport the Biſhop of Paderborn's Election to the Biſhoprick of Munſter: And the 22d Inſtant Mr Itterſon ſet out on his Return to Munſter with new Inſtructions on that ſubject. The Reſident of the Biſhoprick of Munſter, preſented a Memorial the 20th Inſtant to the States, in the Name of the Dean and Canons of Munſter that obey'd the Pope's 2d Letter for deferring the Election of their Biſhop, in which he deſir'd them to revoke their Orders for fiezing their Commiſſary; but their High Mightineſſes return'd him an Anſwer, importing, That they rejected the Authority of thoſe Canons, and that they would receive no more Memorials from him on their Part, ſeeing the Majority of the Canons having actually elected a Biſhop, their Authority ceas'd of Courſe.

Plymouth, Sept. 22. 'The John Galley, Captain 'Jacob Paulſon Maſter, is put in here; ſhe ſail'd 'out of the Downes the 17th Inſtant, in Company 'with 8 or 10 Galleys, bound for Portugal and the 'Mediterranean; but by reaſon of ſtormy Winds 'loſt Company with them that Night. The 20th 'Inſtant in the Morning, off the Lizard, was chas'd 'by a Privateer of Calais of 6 Guns and 10 Paterreroes, full of Men; who by Means of a Calm 'came up with her about 4 a Clock that Afternoon. 'The Captain of the John, who had only about '20 Men, prepar'd to receive him; after ſeveral 'Volleys of Small-ſhot and diſordering his Sails and 'Rigging, the Privateer boarded with moſt 'of his Men, and was an Hour and a half aboard, 'cutting up the Deck in ſeveral Places; but was ſo 'warmly entertain'd that 15 of his Men were kill'd 'and ſeveral more wounded, ſo that he was oblig'd to quit the John, leaving one dead aboard and another mortally wounded, who died 2 Days after; from whom the Captain of the John had an Account of the Number of the Enemy's kill'd and wounded. The Enemy also left several Small-Arms, Axes, and other Instruments aboard. The Privateer was forc'd to leave the Ship in such Consternation, that though the wounded Man cry'd to them to take him with them, they durst not stay. Captain Paulson was in this Action shot through the Left Legg, and wounded on R. Right-Shoulder, and 2 Men more wounded, but not dangerously. He came into Plymouth to refit.

Letters from Bristol advise, that the Queen Ann, a Letter of Mart Ship, belonging to Bristol, had in her Passage from Newfoundland to Gibraltar taken a French Ship; which Prize is arriv'd at Bristol; and the English Master sent home with her reports, that another Letter of Mart Ship of Bristol call'd the Prince Eugene had taken 14 Prizes at Newfoundland, 12 of which he had ransom'd and had the Hostages on board when they came away: He adds that the Fishery at Newfoundland has been very good this Year.
